Premier Academy

Player Schools $700

Designed for serious golfers that want a permanent fix. The school will give participants the tools and knowledge all great ball strikers and proven tour winners have. Private lessons are great, but at times fall short because some students don't have enough time to make the permanent changes in the swing necessary for a lasting effect. Schools are designed to address this issue and are guaranteed to work. Not only will you learn the golf swing, you'll also learn proper mental techniques and work out routines geared for the golf swing. Instruction is for two days, from 9 am - 12 pm daily with lunch provided. After lunch, you take your new found knowledge to the test on our 18 hole golf course. All teaching materials, swing aids, lunch and green fees are included in the price. Only a small number of participants are included to assure adequate time with Steve. Contact him directly for the dates.

Special Group Clinics price TBD

Company outings, church groups, civic organizations and clubs can arrange special clinics. Inquire at the teaching center for more information.
